

It seems an unreal outrage that the rights of Satellite Radio subscribers would be abused, if not ignored, by restricting their ability to receive weather and traffic -- often life saving information -- reports. Please reconsider this shockingly draconian decision. After November, you folks are going to have MUCH to answer for.